

I am against removing or amending the ownership percentage cap, we need to foster diversity in the programming that is received by the public, not restrict it to a few conglomerates.